

HORATIO GREENE

Horatio Greene was born in Nassau and has lived in James Cistern his entire life. Horatio and his wife have two children, and they own a home just north of James Cistern on Queen's Highway. As a carpenter by trade, Horatio is finishing a new home for his family in Rainbow Bay, which is soon to be completed. Horatio is very skilled not just in carpentry but also in other trades and activities, including fishing. In addition to these abilities, Horatio has earned the respect and trust of those who know him as he is kind, hardworking, and honorable. As a native Bahamian, Horatio would bring a much-needed voice to the board on how the neighborhood is run and how it impacts Eleuthera as a whole. Horatio brings both local insight and a genuine desire to serve and protect his community for the good of his family and the entire Rainbow Bay community.
